The Hub of Exchange & Cooperation in Northeast Asia

The Association of North East Asia Regional Governments
The Association of North East Asia Regional Governments

NEAR is an international organization founded by 29 regional governments from four Northeast Asian countries, including People's Republic of China, Japan, Republic of Korea and Russian Federation in September 1996 in Gyeongsangbuk-do Province, Republic of Korea. NEAR is committed to contributing to the co-development of the region and world peace by enhancing mutual exchange and cooperation based on the spirit of reciprocity and equity.

Since adopting the Charter based on the principle of co-prosperity of Northeast Asia, NEAR has been practicing extensive exchange and cooperation projects in various fields ranging from economy and trade to educational and cultural exchanges, environment, disaster prevention to maritime affairs and fisheries, tourism, cross-border cooperation to science and technology.

With the accession of new regional governments from DPRK and Mongolia, NEAR has grown into a local diplomacy and cooperation organization representing Northeast Asia with 70 member regional governments from six countries.

NEAR stands for “the Association of North East Asia Regional Governments” with the word itself meaning close intimacy.
The Northeast Asian regional governments are opening the era of peace and prosperity in the Northeast Asian region through exchange and cooperation.

Observer

Tianjin City, Shanxi Province, Shaanxi Province, Liaoning Province of China and Yamaguchi Prefecture of Japan participate in various events of NEAR as observers, and share information on NEAR activities.
NEAR is organized to effectively implement various exchange and cooperation projects of the Working Committee and Sub-Committees with the General Assembly as its central body.
Since 1996, NEAR has actively carried out activities to achieve co-existence and co-prosperity in Northeast Asia, which are the founding purpose of NEAR, through General Assembly, Working-Committee and Sub-Committees.

General Assembly is the supreme legislative body of the Association, which consists of representatives of member regional governments, and is held every two years by the chair regional government. The function mainly includes determination of business plans, amendment of the Charter and approval of new membership.

The 1st General Assembly (Gyeongsangbuk-do Province, September 1996): NEAR was officially launched as an inter-regional governmental organization and adopted seven joint agendas.

The 2nd General Assembly (Toyama Prefecture, October 1998): NEAR Charter was amended to expand the scope of membership; five Sub-Committees were established.

The 3rd General Assembly (Hyogo Prefecture, September 2000): The establishment of the Secretariat was discussed; a consensus was reached to encourage participation of DPRK regional governments in NEAR activities.

The 4th General Assembly (Khabarovsk Territory, September 2002): DPRK and Mongolia’s accession was approved; a joint working group was organized to prepare for establishing a permanent secretariat.

The 5th General Assembly (Heilongjiang Province, September 2004): Decision was made to establish the secretariat in Gyeongsangbuk-do Province, Republic of Korea; Sub-Committee on Cross-border Cooperation was created.

The 6th General Assembly (Busan Metropolitan City, September 2006): Joint Declaration “Prosperity of Northeast Asia and the Role of NEAR” was adopted; Sub-Committee on Science and Technology was created.

The 7th General Assembly (Shandong Province, September 2008): Shandong Declaration was adopted; Sub-Committee on Tourism and Sub-Committee on Ocean & Fishery were established.

The 8th General Assembly (Gyeonggi-do Province, October 2010): New members were admitted (1 region); three Sub-Committees incl. the Sub-Committee on Mineral Resources Development & Coordination were established.

The Working Committee consists of senior administrative staffs (director-generals) of member regional governments. The function mainly includes decision-making on issues delegated by the General Assembly, discussion on measures to promote exchange and cooperation and coordination of opinions among members.

The 1st Meeting (Gyeongsangbuk-do Province, August 1997): Joint projects were proposed in the fields of economy & trade, culture & arts and environment.

The 2nd Meeting (Toyama Prefecture, July 1999): Activity report was presented by each Sub-Committee; the issue of fee sharing was discussed.

The 3rd Meeting (Hyogo Prefecture, August 2001): Introducing membership fee and a permanent secretariat was discussed.

The 4th Meeting (Heilongjiang Province, January 2004): Gyeongsangbuk-do Province, Korea, as a single candidate, bid for hosting the Secretariat.

The 5th Meeting (Busan Metropolitan City, November 2005): A consensus was reached to organize an Emblem Committee and to second public officials from member regional governments to the Secretariat.

The 6th Meeting (Shandong Province, September 2007): Motions on the introduction of membership fee, creation of Sub-Committee on Tourism and Sub-Committee on Ocean & Fishery were proposed.

The 7th Meeting (Gyeonggi-do Province, October 2009): Decision made by the Special Committee on Membership Fee was reported; proposals were made to establish three Sub-Committees.
A Sub-Committee implements individual projects proposed by regional governments at General Assembly, Working Committee and Sub-Committees. A coordinating organization is in charge of liaison, coordination and operation of each Sub-Committee, and elected by member regional governments.
